

DAVE SLONAKER BIG BAND

2013 GRAMMY® Nominee, Best Large Jazz Ensemble Album

With roots firmly in the tradition of big band jazz, but looking toward the future of large ensemble jazz, the Dave Slonaker Big Band performs the original compositions and arrangements of Dave Slonaker featuring many top Los Angeles jazz and studio musicians.

Dave Slonaker has arranged and orchestrated for many Hollywood composers with credits on dozens of films and TV shows. His jazz compositions and arrangements have been performed by the Count Basie, Clark Terry, and Woody Herman bands.

The Dave Slonaker Big Band received a 2013 GRAMMY® nomination for Best Large Jazz Ensemble Album for their CD entitled "Intrada" (Origin 82651) and features:

Bob Sheppard, Brian Scanlon, Rob Lockart, Tom Luer, Adam Schroeder on reeds; Wayne Bergeron, Dan Fornero, Rick Baptist, Clay Jenkins, Ron Stout on trumpets; Alex Iles, Bob McChesney, Charlie Morillas, Bill Reichenbach on trombones; Ed Czach, piano; Edwin Livingston, bass; and Peter Erskine on drums.
